deem in promise which I made you when I least met you, and II haw been with the save states to raitify:

Why, then, should not the President be satisfied with that? Why require all the slave states to raitify:

Well, we suppose the President desires to statify all parties, so that the slavery question will be effectually and forever set at rest. But to satisfy some people, it is necessary that all the southern States should adopt the amendment. For instance, Mr. Geo. H. Pendiston, who, as some of our readers may remember, ran on the McClellan ticket for Yies, President, said it Congress.

"Three-fourths of the States, nor all the other States cannot enter."

Whon the Fresident requires every southern State cannot enter."

When the Fresident requires every southern State cannot enter."

When the President requires every southern State condopt the amendment, he probably has a desire to satisfy Mr. Pendiston.

News travels alowly in Vernoont. Senator Collamer died at Woodstock Thursday plat, but the legislature at Montpeller, fifty miles away, did not hear of the before the adjournment Friday morning at 8 o'clock, and of course did not take any sation in the premises. The question arises now, can the Governor legally appoint Mr. Collamer's successor, seeing that the vacancy actually commenced while the legislature at Montpeller, fifty miles away, did not hear of it before the adjournment Friday morning at 8 o'clock, and of course did not take any sation in the premises. The Republican and Democratic Par-ties from a Southern View. The Charlottsville, (Va.) Chronicle, has the following in reference to the Republican and the Democratic parties, and what each has done:

Republican and the Democratic parties, and what each has done:

The triumph of the Union armies—the vindication of the National authority—the unity of the empire—the majestic figure of the victorious Republic, with its tremendous military power and its army of iron-clads—all belong to the Republicans. They did it—and the North thanks them for it—which we do not. Here is the difference. Therefore, just in proportion as the Democratic party is popular at the South, just in the same proportion is it unpopular at the North. It staked its existence on its war policy, and it lost. It is dead.

The South, with its military power broken, is at the mercy of the North. All we shall get now, we must get at the ballot-box, and through political combinations. We must either rest at the mercy of the Republican party. How whall we beat them? With the Democrats? We have just shown that as this party becomes popular here it becomes unpopular at the North, and our destines are in the hands of the Northern voters. The South may rally as a unit on the Republican party, and the transaction of the Presidential on the Democratic party, and what will be the consequence? The North will be the consequence? The North will rally as a unit on the Republican party, and the transaction of the Presidential election of 1800 will be repeated. There will be sectional parties—the strong and populous North against the exhausted and sparely-settled South. There have been elections in the last aix weeks in Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Miscougi, Massachusetts and Illinois. The Democrate and Illinois. The Democratic and Illinois. The Poenocratic street of these States and the Republicans carried all the rest. This has been going on now for a number of years. If the South relies on the Democratic party to help it, it will merely keep at war with the Republican party, keep the Republican party compact, and be invariably beaten in the elections. The North aver will forgice the Democratic party.

We regard the continued maintenance.

Democratic party.

We regard the continued maintenance of the Democratic organization at the North as a positive injury to the South. They irritate our opponents without the power to help us. The President and the rupture of the Republican party, and the formation of new parties, are the only hope of the South.

A warren has arisen at the South as popular in rebel circles there as Petroleum V. Nasby is among the loyal here.
The letters are reproduced in nearly all the leading journals. They teem with the hate, venom and treason which underlay the rebellion, and constantly minister to the pride of defeated rebe The fact of their great popularity indiates the prevaler are in direct opposition to the professions of so many Southern leaders.—

The following are examples of the spirit running through these letters:

"Sweet land of Libarty, of thee I sing."
Not much I don't, not at this time. If there's anything sweet about ilberty in this part of the vineyard, I can't see it. The land's good only and I would'nt mind hearin a by me or two about the dirt I live on, but as for findin sugar and ilberty in Georgy soil, its all a mistake. Howsumever, I am hopeful. I'm much calmer and sereener than I was a few months ago. I begin to feel kind, iy toward all people, except some. I'm now endeaverin to be a great national man. I've taken up a motto of no North, no South, no East, no West; but let me tell you, my friend, I'll bet on Dixie as long as I've got a dollar. Its no harm to run both skedales. In fakt, its highly harmonious to do so. I'm a good Union reb, and my battle cry are Dixie and the Union.

The statement of the Southern State

THE statement of the Southern State (legal) debts prior to the war, places them at one hundred and fifty millions. The most of these bonds are held in Europe, and the prospect of payment, even of the interest, is small indeed, of these bonds $20,000,000 belong to Mississippi, $5,000,000 to North Carolina, $5,500,000 to Louisina, and $56,000,000 to Virginia.

THE official returns of the New York election, as they come in, are steadily increasing the Union majority. Barlow's majority will probably reach 30,- Clement L. Vallandigham has abandoned politics, and since the election has begun a series of lectures on the Bible. Is he employed by infidels to bring discredit on revelation?

The progressive democrats of New York have organized a new political club called the Manhattan, with John Van Buren as president; admission fee $150—very aristocratic and exclusive. DIED,
